

“I started off about 4 years ago as a Management Trainee. The two years of the MT program were a rewarding experience. I had various attachments in different fields, including in Supply Chain, Finance, HR, Sales and Marketing. So it served to give me an over all, general management perspective. After completion of my management trainee period, IMT was the field that I chose for myself.”